MINISTRY & OUTREACH PARTICIPATION

- Ministry participation would be any Christ-centered outreach in which the main goal and volume of time was spent ministering to others. This would include any type of gospel presentation (preaching, teaching, choir performance, etc.) or ministry listed in the Gospels (feeding, clothing, medical outreach, prison or shut-in visitation, distribution of literature, etc.) This category does not include competition-related performances (such as Fine Arts Festival) which should be listed under extra-curricular activities. However, actual outreach-related performances of music or speaking based on Fine Arts material would be listed in this section. Examples of ministry activities might include volunteering, planning, teaching, performing, or administrating at: VBS, Sunday School, Youth Services, Kidmin Services (Nursery/Preschool/Children’s Church), involvement in AIM activities, public performances and outreaches, or health facilities.
- List as many activities as you wish and you may make as many copies of this page needed.
- Level of participation could be: volunteer, teacher/tutor, supervisor, planner, administrator, etc.
- Hours should be noted as PW (per week), PM (per month), PS (per session), or OT (one time).
